Georgia Majority for Gun Safety
Common ground, common sense

2024 Gun Safety Candidate Pledge

As a candidate for elected office in the state of Georgia, I pledge that if I am elected, I will support gun safety legislation in Georgia, specifically the following:

- Secure storage laws, including specific protections for children
- Ensure that all gun purchases and transfers are subject to background checks
- Create mechanisms to identify and prevent firearm purchases by individuals who are at risk for illegal or violent activities with guns, including domestic abuse and self-harm
- Funding for hospital and community based violence intervention initiatives

About Georgia Majority for Gun Safety
We stand for the majority of Georgians who believe that responsible gun ownership is compatible with gun safety when supported by common sense regulations to ensure public welfare.[1][2] We are a diverse and bipartisan coalition who find common ground in common sense solutions to reduce gun violence. Our members include emergency room physicians, pediatricians, psychologists, educators, faith leaders, community leaders, parents, and, importantly, many gun owners.

Member organizations include Giffords Gun Owners for Safety, Moms Demand Action, Everytown for Gun Safety, Georgia Clinicians for Gun Safety, Black Push, Georgia Moms for Change, Neighbors for Action, Mothers Against Gang Violence, Georgia Interfaith Alliance for Gun Safety, Georgia Interfaith Public Policy Center, Georgia Youth Justice Coalition, Jewish Democratic Women's Salon - Atlanta, National Council of Jewish Women - Atlanta, A. Phillip Randolph Institute - Savannah, Georgia Coalition for Safe Communities, Amnesty International USA (GA End Gun Violence Task Force), and the Community Justice Action Fund.
